Forestry Major with Forest Management Option

The forestry degree program prepares graduates to actively plan for, observe and manage the health of the entire forest ecosystem. Professional foresters play a critical role in understanding and protecting multiple-use natural resources.

The primary goals of a forester include managing forested landscapes for sustainable timber harvesting, and protecting forests for conservation and recreation purposes.

Your Bachelor's Degree (BS) in Forestry

Degree Requirements:

- A minimum of 180 credits, of which at least 60 must be upper division (300 and 400-level courses).
- A maximum of 135 credits earned at a community college may be applied toward a bachelor's degree at OSU.
- Only courses with letter prefixes and numbers above 100 are accepted.
- Six months of work experience related to the field
- Meet admission criteria for Forestry Pro-School (minimum grades of C in all major courses and 2.25 GPA in major courses)
